

Curriculum vitae

Zoltan Walko, CEFA
Foreign Research Division
Oesterreichische Nationalbank zoltan.walko@oenb.at

Date / Place of birth: July 30, 1967, Budapest

Education

1992: Master's degree in Economics and Business Administration, University of Economics
Vienna

1995: Certified European Financial Analyst

Professional career

1994-1996: GiroCredit Research, economic and fixed income research. Focus on international capital markets, in particular on Central and Eastern Europe.
Economic, interest rate and exchange rate analysis and forecasting.

1996-2003: Creditanstalt (later Bank Austria-Creditanstalt group), Treasury, Fixed Income Research. Focus on Central and Eastern Europe. Economic, interest rate and exchange rate analysis and forecasting, development and implementation of quantitative tools for the assessment of risk/return profiles, trading strategies, portfolio optimization.

Since 2003: Oesterreichische Nationalbank (OeNB), Economic Analysis and Research Section, Foreign Research Division. Focus on Central and Eastern Europe.
Analysis of economic, monetary and financial market developments, monetary policy and financial stability issues. Drafting of OeNB policy positions within the ESCB decision making processes. Development and maintenance of an economic and financial database for CEE countries.

Language skills

Hungarian (native), German (close to native), English (fluent), Russian (basic knowledge)