

Dr. Ernest Gnan

Born on 27 January 1964 in Vienna.

Education:

- 1986 Master's degree in commercial sciences at the University of Economics and Business Administration, Vienna.
- 1989 Doctorate in economics at the University of Economics and Business Administration, Vienna.
- 1991 Economics course at London School of Economics.

Professional experience:

- 1987 Investment fund manager at Genossenschaftliche Zentralbank, Vienna.
- 1988-1991 Economist at Oesterreichische Nationalbank, Vienna, Economics Division.
- 1992-1994 National expert at the European Commission, Brussels, Directorate General for Monetary and Financial Affairs.
- 1995-1997 Economist at the European Monetary Institute (forerunner of the European Central Bank), Frankfurt, Secretariat of the Foreign-Exchange Policy Sub-Committee.
- 1998 Deputy Head, Foreign Research Division, Oesterreichische Nationalbank, Vienna.
- Since 1999 Head, Economic Analysis Division, Oesterreichische Nationalbank, Vienna
- Since 2000 Member of the European Central Bank's Monetary Policy Committee
- Since 2003 Member of the Government Debt Committee

Teaching experience:

- Since 1992 Numerous lectures, on behalf of the European Commission, the European Monetary Institute and the Oesterreichische Nationalbank, on subjects related to macroeconomics, monetary union, monetary and exchange rate policy, and central banking.
- Since 1998 Regular university undergraduate courses on „The political economy of European integration“ for US students participating in a one semester Vienna Program of AHA International.
- Since 1999 Adjunct Professor at Webster University, Vienna. Graduate courses on „Current Economic Analysis“.

Publications:

Publications on macroeconomics; growth; monetary policy; economic, institutional and legal aspects of European Monetary Union; exchange rate policy, the European Monetary System, the ERM2 and the international monetary system; the institutional status of central banks; and the Austrian capital market.

Vienna, 21 July 2004