

MARIANNE KAGER

Studies in Economics at the University of Vienna; M.A. in economics at the University of Vienna.

Fellow at the Ludwig Boltzmann Research Institute for Economic Growth: studies on industrial structures, investment subsidies, research and development in Austria; between 1983 -1987 working in various ministries as political advisor.

Since 1987 working as economist in the Banking Sector;

1991- 2008 Chief Economist and Head of Group Economics and Market Analysis Department of Bank Austria Group and its predecessors.

2008- Consultant; Managing Director of MK CEBA GesmbH (working as an independent consultant in the fields of economics, competition cases (economic advice) and financial regulatory affairs).

Permanent columnist of the Salzburger Nachrichten.

Research on macro development of the Transition Economies as well as in financial markets developments and competition aspects of the Austrian and the CEE Financial Sectors.

Many years of experience in EU Banking Regulation and Supervision; nominated by Bank Austria to various national and international committees and negotiation groups (ESBG: for many years member of the Legal Committee; FBE: member of the Committee of Global Banking Issues); personally appointed by diverse institutions (European Parliament, EU Commission, and Austrian Ministry of Finance) as an expert.

Nominations as an expert (ad personam):

European Parliament – Member of the first Advisory Group to the ECON European Commission – FSAP Stock-Taking – member of the Expert Group on Securities CESR – Level II proposals for the MiFID – Member of the “Markets Experts Group” ELEC (European League for Economic Co-operation) – Member of the Monetary Panel (since 2001) European Commission – Advisory Group for Commissioner Potocnik: Expert Group: « Knowledge for Growth » (2005 - 2009)

European Community Studies Association (ECSA) – Member of the Advisory Committee

WIIW Vienna Institute for International Economic Studies – Board Member

Member of the University Council of the University Klagenfurt (nominated by the Austrian Government for a 5 year period 2008-2013)

Publications

Editor-in-chief (1991-2008) of Bank Austria REPORT, CEE Report (until 2006), Report Xplicit, and a regular author of articles for these publications. Various articles about financial market structures and financial markets regulatory affairs in national and international publications.