

.....Information note on protection of
.....personal data

In conformity with the requirements of Legislative Decree 196/2003 of the Italian Republic, you are informed that Banca d'Italia processes the personal data that you provide upon applying for the issue of electronic certificates.

The data are necessary for the issue and management of electronic certificates by Banca d'Italia.

The data are processed with IT procedures and logics strictly correlated to the above-mentioned purposes and with the use of security measures that ensure the confidentiality of personal data and prevent access to such data by unauthorized third parties or personnel.

The data are not communicated to third parties, nor are they disseminated.

The data may become known to:

- 1) in their capacity as persons responsible for processing, the Manager of the SSP Service Desk / other individuals at each NCB to which the application was submitted; the Head of the Organization Department, which operates the certification service and authorizes the requests relative to the life cycle of certificates; and the Head of the Information Technology Department, which produces the certificates;
- 2) in their capacity as assigned persons, the personnel of the units assigned, case by case or permanently, to perform the above-mentioned activities.

You may refer to Banca d'Italia (Organization Department), via Nazionale 91, 00184 ROME, Head of Processing, or to the persons responsible for processing indicated above, to exercise your right to access your personal data and the other rights recognized by Article 7 of Legislative Decree 196/2003, including: the right to know the origin of the data and the purposes for and manner in which it is processed; to have the data updated, corrected or supplemented; to obtain the deletion, transformation into anonymous form or blocking of the data that are processed in violation of the law; to object in whole or in part, for legitimate reasons, to processing.