

CV Carl Christian von Weizsäcker

Studied economics, sociology and political science

Professor of Economics in Heidelberg (1965-1972), at MIT (1968-1970), in Bielefeld (1972-1974), in Bonn (1974-81), in Bern (1982-1986), in Cologne (1986-2003). At present Senior Research Fellow at Max Planck Institute on Collective Goods in Bonn.

Fellow of the Econometric Society, Founding Member of the European Economic Association, Member of the Advisory Board of the German Minister of Economic Affairs, Chairman of the German Monopoly Commission (1989-1998)

Numerous research publications in economics (in particular theory of growth, capital theory, macroeconomics, industrial economics, welfare economics).